

I believe that your agency has gone to far. What you are doing is censorship plain and simple. I believe that parents should be the ones repsonsible for what their children see and don't see and that your morals should not be foreced upon anyone. Please read the novel 1984. I found it quite enlightening.